TRLEGRAPHIC news was received in Hongkong to-day from Batavia that the British ship Esther Roy, which left New York on the 15th April for Hongkong, is at present ashore in Sunda Straits.

ONE of a number of houses in course of construction for the Kowloon Land and Building Co., at Observatory Hill, Kowloon, collapsed yesterday afternoon, and two Chinese were somewhat severely injured. The men were removed to hospital.

THE following telegram was received in Singapore by the local Secretary of the Raub Company, dated Kwala Kubu, 9th finst. :- From Mr W. Bibby, manager at the Raub Mine :- 'Started battery crushing 5th inst. Working well.'

Kwok To, a contractor who is engaged in making openings in the streets for the electric pillars now being put up, was charged at the Police Court to-day, before Mr Wodehouse, with leaving holes in the street open all night without being protectod in any way or marked by lights. One complaint was at the instance of Police Sergt. Gane and another at the instance of Police Sergt. Young. The defendant said the people had taken away the bamboos which he had placed over the holes. The case was remanded.

THE Chinese Times, writing with regard to Mr Keswick's share-gambling Bill, says :-'This well-meant effort to put an end to a scandalous state of things deserves all success, but Acts of Parliament are not infallible, and unless the public opinion of the colony supports the legislature the new rule may be more honoured in the breach than the observance. So long as it is held creditable for directors of companies to gamble in their shares, and so long as little less than divine honours are paid to the leader of the ring of speculators, the government will have very up-hill work in its crusade against share gambling.

PEARL Cleveland was summoned before Mr Wodehouse in the Police Court to-day for keeping a disorderly house at No. 79 Wyndham Street. Police Sergt. Butlin, who was the complainant, said that SELTZER WATER about 12,30 a.m. on the 17th ingt. he heard a great noise of dancing, singing and playing the piano in defendant's house, which was continued till 5 a.m. The people in the house were jumping, shouting and making a great noise and disturbance.-His Worship: Has any complaint been made to you about a disturbance !- Witness: No. but I know she has been brought up before for the same offence.-His Worship: -We have nothing to do with that now .- Witness: Acting Deputy Superintendent Horspool called meandasked me if I had heard the disturbance and said that it must be stopped. His Worship :--You don't make this complaint on your own initiative ?-Witness :- 1 was instructed to do so. - His Worship: Very well, you can let me know if anybody elso has suffered. from this noise, and I shall remand the case till Saturday at ten o'clock.
